ORAL JUDGEMENT

The petitioner Gnajyot Kelevani Mandal Trust has filed petition under the affidavit of Shri D.B. Patel,

Secretary of the petitioner Trust dated 19.11.1991 and prayed relief to quash and set aside the action of the respondents of withholding the maintenance grant of Shri Navyug Uttar Buniyadi Vidyalaya and declare it as illegal and also prayed to direct the respondents to release the remaining grant of the fiscal year 1988-89 and all the grants for the year 1989-90, 1990-91 and by way of interim relief, the petitioner has prayed to restrain the respondents from withholding the maintenance grant and all other available grants for the petitioner. While filing this petition, the petitioner has annexed various documents namely, copy of registration for land dated 23.8.1988, copy of registration for land dated 21.5.1986, copy of registration for land dated 6.10.1989, copy of the order dated 22.8.1988 passed by the Section Officer of Education Department and copy of the order dated 13.9.1991 passed in Special Civil Application No. 6456 of 1991 passed by the learned Single Judge in a petition filed by Divya Jyot Charitable Trust Debhari, Tal.: Balasinor.

2. In the said petition, the learned Single Judge vide order dated 31.1.1992 issued notice, which was made returnable on 18.2.1992. Thereafter on 18.2.1992, the Court has passed following order :-

> "Rule. To be heard along with Special Civil Application No. 6456 of 1991. Ad-interim relief to the effect that all grants are not withhold on the ground that the petitioner's school does not own and possess the land admeasuring 15 acres provided they complied with minimum requirement of possessing the land as per the prevailing circular. However, this release of grant will be subject to result of petition without prejudice to rights and contentions of the parties. Direct service permitted."

3. Though the petition is pending since 1992 and pending for final hearing, the respondent authorities have not filed any reply in this proceedings.

4. As per order, this petition is ordered to be heard with Special Civil Application No. 6452 of 1991, by which, the said petition was also ordered to be heard along with other Special Civil Application Nos. 394/91, 5011/91 and 5012/91 and others.

5. While circulating this matter, the office has annexed the judgement of the learned Single Judge namely my brother Judge Mr. R.K. Abichandani dated 28th July, 2000, by which, learned Single Judge has disposed off group of petitions by common judgement including the petition being Special Civil Application No. 6456 of 1991. In those petitions, Mr. Y.S.Lakhani appears on behalf of petitioners and in the present petition also, Mr. Y.S. Lakhani, learned advocate is also appeared with Shri C.S. Shah for the petitioner.

6. I have gone through the order dated 28th July, 2000, by which, learned Single Judge has after considering the Rule 125 and the action initiated by the authorities has come to the conclusion as under :-

> "That the conditions for grant are to be prescribed by the authority providing for the grant. Therefore, the Court cannot go behind the decision of the Government fixing the area of the land which is required for the purpose of teaching agriculture as the main craft. Therefore, the requirement of 15 acres appearing in Rule 125 of such land maintained for the purpose of teaching agriculture cannot be relaxed by the Court."

The learned Single Judge has further observed as under :-

> "In this view of the matter, the impugned orders and actions in all these petitions to the extent that grants are withheld or refused on the ground of want of ownership of the land, are hereby set aside and the concerned authorities are directed to reconsider the cases of all these petitioners in light of the observations made this judgement and pass fresh orders within two months from the date of the receipt of writ of this order in accordance with law. It will be open for the petitioners to make representations in their respective cases as stated by their learned counsel within two weeks from today. If such representations are made, they will be duly considered before making the order. Rule is made absolute accordingly with no order as to costs in each of these petitions."

7. In this petition, the petitioner has also prayed the similar relief and also as per order dated 18.2.1992, which I have reproduced hereinabove, this matter is ordered to be heard with Special Civil Application No. 6456 of 1991 and as the said Special Civil Application

No. 6456 of 1991 is disposed off in these group of matters, this matter is not listed with those group of petitions, otherwise, this petition would have been decided in that group of petitions.

8. In view of this and as the learned Single Judge has disposed off group of petitions, which were filed on the similar relief, I am fully agree with the finding recorded by the learned Single Judge and I dispose off the present petition on the same line. I am told that judgement of the learned Single Judge in those matters have not been challenged by the parties. In view of this, the present petition deserves to be allowed on the same ground. Rule is made absolute. If the petitioner wants to make representation, the petitioner shall make representation to the authority as early as possible and authority shall decide the same in accordance with law before passing any order.

(D.K. Trivedi, J.)
